1. Course Description

This course explores the caring presence and actions of the pastor as a form of spiritual leadership and formation. Skills of effective pastoral care are presented and practiced, including effecting listening and response, awareness of cultural differences, timely intervention, and appropriate referral. Students are encouraged to reflect on their personal strengths, their need for growth in developing relational skills, their self-care and the development of personal spiritual practices – all in the context of the community of faith.

2. Textbooks

Emma Justes, Hearing Beyond the words: How to Become a Listening Pastor, Abingdon Press, 2006

Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson, The Unnecessary Pastor: Rediscovering the Call, William B. Eerdmans Publishing, 2000

Kevin M. Watson, A Blueprint for Discipleship: Wesley's General Rules as a Guide for Christian Living, Discipleship Resources, 2009

(Students are responsible for obtaining their own books):
