Annual Report
July 1, 2012 – June 30, 2013
One of the great scenes in scripture takes place on the Mount of Transfiguration. Jesus, Moses and Elijah meet there, though there is no mention of the conversational content in which God is clearly the host. Leaving the mountain, Peter asks, “Lord, should we build three shelters, one for each of you,” but while still speaking the Holy Ghost speaks up, “This is the Son that I love very much. Listen to what he says.”

This is the framework where a seminary’s work begins. While United’s work doesn’t involve building memorials, it does entail listening to what our Christ would say to us as we prepare the servant leaders for the church present and future. Of such was United’s tag line born, “Spirit Led, Renewing the Church,” which is deeply centered in listening to the Holy Spirit, and listening to the church as it informs how we might best participate in the shaping of men and women for ministry. Such listening has given rise to new programs in church renewal and urban ministry, new concentrations for Hispanic language speakers and learners, and the use of online resources for theological education.

Similarly, with the Holy Spirit’s leading, the generous giving of our alumni/ae and friends has made possible the growth of United and the extension of its reach across the nation and the globe. In this work that we do together, holy and sacred moments are shared when the voice of God echoes across time and place God’s gift of love in Christ to each one, “You are my beloved child that I love very much.”

Thanks to the many gifts that come forth to support the ministry of theological education at United, it is possible for us to continue to echo the message of God’s love in Jesus Christ across the Church and the world. It’s a message that brings hope, joy, faith and love to all who will hear.

Thank you for your prayerful support!

Yours in Christ,

Timothy J. Forbess
Dear Friends,

Thank you for your prayerful support for United. Your generosity has helped to fulfill the seminary's mission “to recruit, nurture and educate faithful leaders for the mission of Jesus Christ in the world.”

There is no better time than the present to be about God’s purposes!

Your faithful giving has made it possible for future leaders of the church to study with excellent faculty in a state of the art facility and through distance education. Through provision of scholarships, your gifts help students to avoid crippling burdens of debt. You have made it possible to prepare pastors, chaplains, missionaries and teachers and others for the redemptive ministries of the church locally and across the globe.

It is my hope and prayer that this report finds you well. I hope also that you will continue to remember and pray for United, and especially for our students, as they study and prepare to serve Jesus Christ faithfully and well.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or prayer requests, or if you would like a phone call or visit.

Gratefully yours in the service of Jesus Christ,

Wendy J. Deichmann

President

Deuteronomy 15:10
Give generously to him and do so without a grudging heart; then because of this the Lord your God will bless you in all your work and in everything you put your hand to.
When I began exploring my call to ordained ministry I knew I wanted to go to a seminary that would be focused on renewing the Church but also allow me to learn on my own schedule. My search led me to United, a seminary that is driven to reinvigorate the Church and is on the cutting edge of distance learning.

United has definitely lived up to my expectations so far. Seminary education isn’t cheap, but I feel God is calling me toward ordination as an elder in The United Methodist Church. I have prayed about how my education would be financed and God answered that prayer in a mighty way. The Master Scholar scholarship I received pays for my tuition at United, decreasing my worries about the cost of my education.

But this scholarship is different than a typical scholarship. It’s not just about money; it’s about building a relationship. While I may never know the generous donors of scholarships I received when I was an undergraduate, I get to have a mentor relationship with the family who is financing the Master Scholar scholarship. I am extremely thankful for the amazing generosity of Rick and Vicki James. Their support means the world to me and helps me to feel more confident about God’s call on my life.

I feel like I have won the lottery and have been able to invest that money into my seminary education. Knowing I have the support of the James family is such a blessing. I hope to be able to use my degree to help renew the Church and help connect younger generations to God through Jesus Christ. This scholarship will help me to pursue this goal. I pray that I can live up to the investment they are making in me and that God will use me and my fellow seminarians to continue to bring the Gospel to a world that so desperately needs it.
