1. Welcome
Greetings brothers and sisters in the name of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The School for Discipleship and Renewal (SDR) welcomes you to the Hispanic Christian Academy. The purpose of SDR as the missional arm of United Theological Seminary is to provide enrichment and training in practical ministry for clergy, lay leaders and congregations. Our goal is to renew, retool, refuel and refresh the Church for the mission of Jesus Christ to make disciples for the transformation of the world. We believe that you will find this learning experience to be an opportunity to be challenged and to grow in your call and preparation for ministry. Allow the Lord to use this as a time of equipping and impartation. May God grant you grace and strength for the journey.

Grace and Peace,
Rev. Mark Abbott, Ph.D.
Director of Non-Degree Programs

2. Who We Are
Our mission
The Hispanic Christian Academy (HCA), part of United Theological Seminary's Center for Hispanic/Latino Ministries, is designed to impact the local church by equipping and training Hispanic leaders to serve as lay pastors and leaders. It is a three-year Course of Ministry program taught online in Spanish or English. The basic curriculum includes: Bible, Theology, Church and Mission, and Ministry.

The Hispanic Christian Academy intends to:
• Educate church leaders in foundational knowledge and practical training for ministry
• Equip and train leaders in Scriptural preaching, teaching, ministry and pastoral care
• Encourage personal spiritual growth of leaders to mature in Christ
• Train leaders to equip and train others for serving in ministry
• Encourage leaders to high standards of integrity

Our history
In February 2013 United Theological Seminary (United) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Global Empowerment Ministries (GEM) to launch the first Regional Online Campus (ROC) of the Hispanic Christian Academy. The HCA had been housed under GEM, with the support of the Kentucky Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. In the spring of that year 17 students from Kentucky took two HCA courses online.

In April 2013 the Northwest Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church signed an MOU with United, expanding the ministry to more Hispanic lay persons, equipping them for ministry. That fall 16 students completed their first HCA course.

Our structure
United seeks to partner with already established church agencies to bring the HCA to their area, forming an ROC. Memoranda of Understanding are written between United and the agency to set up the terms for scholarships and financing, recruitment of students, provision and training of Instructors, and administrative needs.

United will also partner with students who apply on an individual basis and will work to provide necessary support and scholarships.

(http://united.force.com/HispanicChristianAcademyApplication)

• IMPORTANT: Each student MUST have a working email account which must be entered correctly on the application.

  • Once the student is approved/confirmed, they will be sent to their personal email account a welcome and first steps email as well an email with their first set of credentials.
  • Students are issued a United email account. This account will be the main form of communication used by all United personnel and course notifications from United Online.
  • Students’ credentials to the Student Portal will be sent to their United email account as well as a “Next Steps” email.
  • Students need to access their United email account to find their Student Portal credentials and follow instructions to register.
  • Students will be automatically enrolled in the HCA Online Student Orientation course. All new students are required to work through this course which teaches some of the necessary skills and practical tips for preparing them to take their HCA courses online. They will not be able to register for courses until they have completed this course.
  • Students are expected to take HCA courses in sequential order, beginning with 100 level courses, followed by 200, then 300 level courses. A student who desires to take a course out of order, such as a 300 level course before a 200 level course, must get written permission from the HCA Director as well as the Instructor of the course.

c. Registering for Courses
  • Registration opens 5 weeks before the courses begin.

7. Student Payment
   a. Students registering alone (not under an ROC) will be billed for payment directly. Payment is due upon receipt of the statement.
   b. Students registering under an ROC will need to submit to their ROC all student portions of the course fees as determined by their ROC: the student’s portion of the tuition, any church sponsorship, the application fee ($25, first time students, non-refundable, as applicable), and/or book fees. ROCs are billed for each term.

8. Drop/Add/Reimbursements
   a. Students may add a course only within the first week after the course has begun. Students must add the course from the Student Portal.
   b. A student wishing to add a course after the first week is to notify their ROC Assistant with their request. The ROC Assistant is to contact the HCA Coordinator to receive written permission.
   c. Students may drop a course only within the first week of the course to receive full reimbursement for the tuition fees of the course (this excludes the $25 application fee). The student is to drop the course from the Student Portal.
   d. HCA’s refund policy: student tuition and conference scholarships are refundable if the student withdraws from the course within the first week of the course.

11. Ministry Expectations
    Students are highly encouraged to be in some form of supervised ministry, under the leadership and supervision of their ROC.

12. Evaluations
    Students will be given evaluations for their Instructor during the last week of each course. These evaluations give helpful feedback for making improvements to the courses. A link to the survey is found at the end of each course. The student’s response is anonymous; it has no bearing on their grade.
13. Tuition, Fees and Scholarships
United provides scholarships and other assistance as outlined in the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between United and each Regional Online Campus (ROC). These scholarships grant assistance for students participating in HCA’s online 3-year certification program. Each student will receive a scholarship from their regional agency and United. Other assistance includes the student’s local church.

Students whose financial obligations are not paid in full are not eligible to register for the next term or receive transcripts, grades or their Certificate in Theology and Ministry.

All costs for books and computers are the responsibility of the student or ROC; United does not provide scholarships or aid for these items.

15. Student Conduct Policy
a. Students are expected to follow the Sexual Harassment Policy as well as the Academic Honor Policy as outlined in the following sections.
b. Students are to use the course portal for class use only, respecting and honoring others.
c. Sexual harassment

United Theological Seminary is a Christian institution that considers human relationships to be sacred and the human body to be holy. Therefore, it seeks to create a safe, grace-filled environment for all persons in which human worth and relationships are honored and respected.

It is the policy of United Theological Seminary to provide all of the members of its community (students, faculty, staff, consultants, mentors, facilitators, field education supervisors, employees, and anyone acting on behalf of the Seminary) with an environment free of sexual harassment and its interference with their comfort or performance in the classroom or the workplace. Any behavior that constitutes sexual harassment is a violation of human dignity and rights and will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment in the workplace is a prohibited practice under Section 703 of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act as amended by the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1973. In 1980, The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission established guidelines, revised in 1990, which defined sexual harassment as a form of illegal sexual discrimination. In 1986 the Supreme Court of the United States and the state of Ohio adopted the EEOC’s definition of sexual harassment in the guidelines and ruled that sexual harassment on the job is illegal discrimination even if the victim suffers no economic loss.

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

1. Submission to such conduct is used either explicitly or implicitly as a condition of employment, admission as a student to the school, or participation in any program or activity;

2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a basis for employment decisions, such as promotion, demotion, or raises, or as a basis for academic decisions, such as grades, evaluations, or references;

3. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or academic environment. Examples of acts that create a hostile environment include, but are not limited to, repeated unwelcome sexual comments or advances, inappropriate or unwelcome and uninvited touching, repeated unwanted asking for dates, taunts regarding sexual preference, taunting jokes directed to a person by reason of their gender, obscene posters, threats, and favoritism based on gender. One’s intent of behavior may not coincide with and does not supersede the effect of the behavior upon another person.

Any person who is in the United workplace and/or the classroom and feels that s/he has suffered sexual harassment, is encouraged to issue a complaint and follow the steps as outlined in the Problem Clearance Procedure. Sexual harassment will not be tolerated and the sexual harassment policy will continue to be scrutinized so that the United community can be reasonably assured of a safe and enjoyable working and learning environment.

d. Academic Honor Policy
All students are expected to honor this policy.
The following is taken from United’s student handbook:

Academic Integrity: United Theological Seminary is an institution of graduate theological education affiliated with the United Methodist Church. The central purpose of United is the formation of pastors and leaders for the Christian ministry. Academic integrity is held in high esteem at United; it is considered one of the foundations of formation of Christian character in servant leadership for the Church.

Academic integrity is characterized by diligence and honesty in research, writing, preaching, and all communications related to worship and learning in this community. Several commonly used guides to research and writing are available in the library. Some instructors may include detailed guidelines in a syllabus, and others may simply refer to the writing guides that are available. If you feel unprepared or uninformed about an instructor’s expectations for academic performance, you may ask for clarification. All students will be held accountable for academic integrity.

Policy: This policy is in effect by the vote of the faculty and approved by the Board of Trustees as binding for all students of United Theological Seminary: degree and non-degree, all Masters Programs, and the Doctor of Ministry program. The purpose of this policy is to clarify and codify the rights and responsibilities inherent in the faculty-student relationship of this community. Academic integrity is integral to formation of Christian character in servant leadership for the church. Academic integrity is characterized by mutual respect, honest inquiry, and honesty in the discovery and dissemination of knowledge, including academic instruction, evaluation, study, research, writing, preaching and all communications related to worship and learning in this community. Dishonesty in academic work is a serious violation of scholarship and community, just as stealing another person’s property is illegal and harmful to persons. Students are to accept, embrace, and live in harmony with the concept of academic integrity. Academic integrity includes fair and impartial evaluations on the part of faculty and honest conduct on the part of students. Consistent with Christian and academic standards, the following conduct is expected:

1. Faculty and students are expected to attend classes when scheduled, keep scheduled appointments, make appropriate preparations for classes and other meetings, students should submit assignments when due and faculty should perform evaluations and grading in a timely manner.
2. Faculty should use reasonable accuracy in describing course expectations and standards of evaluation, inclusive of the limits of permissible assistance available to students during a course or academic evaluation.
3. Academic evaluations should be based upon good-faith professional judgment in accordance with applicable standards.
4. Cheating, fraud, and plagiarism are three types of academic dishonesty that are a violation of this policy inasmuch as the integrity of the academic process requires that credit be given where credit is due.

Cheating may include stealing another person’s answers to items on an examination or breaking rules in order to gain an advantage, as well as providing assistance during an academic evaluation. Cheating includes engaging in the intentional and unauthorized purchase, sale, or use of any materials intended to be used as an instrument of academic evaluation in advance of its administration and engaging in conduct that is so disruptive as to infringe upon the rights of faculty members or fellow students.

Fraud is also known in biblical language as “bearing false witness” and may include lying; giving false information in admission documents; altering records of grades and narrative evaluations; misrepresenting your status in relation to the Seminary in any setting of course work, contextual education, Clinical Pastoral Education, Intercultural trip, or other off-campus Seminary related experience; acting as or utilizing a substitute for another person in any academic evaluation; and attempting to influence or change your academic evaluation or record for reasons other than achievement or merit.

Plagiarism is submitting the work, ideas, representations, or words of another and claiming it as your own, such as copying text from a book or journal, copying text posted on an internet site, or purchasing a paper from someone (a “paper mill”). Plagiarism can also be called “stealing,” as in the practice of claiming as your own the information or results of research projects that were actually conducted by someone else. Plagiarism is also knowingly permitting another to present your own work without customary and proper acknowledgement of the source.

Violations of this policy may have serious consequences for students as explained in the procedures below.

Instructors are encouraged to post a reference to this policy, a statement of standards for assignments, and consequences for violation of the policy and course standards in their syllabi. Not doing so does not constitute exemption of anyone from adherence to this policy or the enactment of the procedures described below. For additional information, students may find helpful the discussion of intellectual honesty in Vyhmeister’s guide.

16. Student Records
   Records on each student are found on the Student Portal. Students can make changes to their personal information at any time on the Student Portal. Students are also able to print their degree audits and/or unofficial transcripts from the Student Portal.

   Under the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (Buckley Amendment, FERPA), students have the right to inspect and review their educational records held by United and to request correction of any inaccurate data. http://www.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpco/ferpa/index.html

   United will disclose student information only to those who are authorized and have legitimate need for such information. No records will be released without a written and signed request from the student. No third party requests will be honored without a signed waiver.
