International Student Costs
Doctoral Degree Seeking
2014-2015

Admissions Application
United Application Fee: $80
TOEFL Exam Estimate: $170\textsuperscript{a}
WES Transcript Evaluation: $200

Visa Application
Sevis Fees: $235

Estimated Educational Expenses\textsuperscript{b}
Tuition: $8,700 per year
Fees:$549 per semester
Books: $500 per semester

Estimated Living Expenses\textsuperscript{c}
Housing: $525 per month
Utilities: $200 per month
Food: $250 per month

Other Expenses\textsuperscript{d}
Miscellaneous
Flights

\textsuperscript{a}Fees vary by country, visit http://www.ets.org/toefl to schedule your exam.

\textsuperscript{b}The Board of Trustees approves tuition rate changes on an annual basis. Information on this page is subject to change.

\textsuperscript{c}Estimated living expenses are for residential students only. Estimates are based on past international student living costs in the Dayton area for a family of 1 and the USDA.

\textsuperscript{d}Miscellaneous expenses include internet, cable, tourism activity, bus passes, etc. and will vary depending on every student’s lifestyle. Flight costs will vary depending on a student’s departure city and whether the student will fly in once for residential programming or fly multiple times for intensives.