

COURSE OF STUDY SCHOOL OF OHIO
HYBRID COURSES AT UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

COURSE 521: Bible V
Summer 2015

This course will begin on-campus June 19-20 and conclude online August 1, 2015.

Instructor:

Rev. Britt Leslie Ph.D.
bleslie@united.edu

Greeting:

Welcome to Bible V. I am excited about the opportunity to explore the New Testament with you. I was once a pastor too and working another job at the same time while attending seminary. I know how busy things can get. I have done my best to keep the readings and assignments reasonable and still cover all that needs to be covered. If any of you think that you may have a problem completing an assignment for a given week let me know right away and we can work something out.

I find that students and teachers can learn a great deal from each other and I am sure that will be true here. I am eager to hear about your individual ministry contexts and looking forward to discovering together ways to apply New Testament insights to those various contexts. It is my goal that this course will be helpful to you as a pastor. Thanks and feel free to contact me by e-mail (or the course Quickmail system) with any questions.

I. Course Description and Goals:

This course focuses on the content and context of the New Testament writings, and the theological emphases of their writers. In addition to Acts and Revelation, Romans, 1-2 Corinthians, Hebrews, James, and 1 John will receive special attention. Students will articulate a theology of scripture.

Course Goals:

1. Distinguish these genres of biblical literature, and understand the major theological themes in these writings.
2. Faithfully exegete these forms of biblical literature.
3. Apply exegesis to preaching, other pastoral responsibilities, and issues of the present day.
4. Articulate the unity and authority of Scripture as a whole.

II. Textbooks

(Students are responsible for obtaining their own books, you may already own some of these from prior COS courses):

A. Required: (we will use these books throughout the course)

- 1) Powell, Mark Allan. Introducing the New Testament: A Historical, Literary, and Theological Survey. Grand Rapids, Mich: Baker Academic, 2009.
ISBN 978-0801028687 $27
- 2) Malina, Bruce J. Windows on the World of Jesus: Time Travel to Ancient Judea. Louisville: Westminster John Knox Press, 1993. ISBN 978-0664254575 $20
- 3) Gorman, Michael J. Elements of Biblical Exegesis: A Basic Guide for Students and Ministers, rev. ed. Peabody: Hendrickson, 2009. ISBN: 978-1598563115 $15
- 4) Harrelson, Walter J. The New Interpreter's Study Bible: New Revised Standard Version With the Apocrypha. Abingdon Press, 2003.
ISBN 0687278325 (hardcover) $31; ISBN 0687647339 (paperback) $26

You may also use:

- a. Attridge, Harold W., and Society Of Biblical Literature. HarperCollins Study Bible - Student Edition: Fully Revised & Updated. Rev Upd. HarperOne, 2006.
ISBN 006078685X (hardcover) $29; ISBN 0060786841 (paperback) $24
- b. Coogan, Michael D., Marc Z. Brettler, Carol A. Newsom, and PHEME PERKINS. The New Oxford Annotated Bible with Apocrypha: New Revised Standard Version, College Edition. Fourth Edition. Oxford University Press, USA, 2010.
ISBN 0195289552 (hardcover) $30; ISBN 0195289609 (paperback) $22

Note: It must be one of these three approved Annotated/Study Bibles: (Highly recommended to own at some point in your ministry. You may already own one of these from your other COS Bible courses. It must be one of these three since I have verified them to be academically sound resources.)

B. Supplementary: (You won't have required readings from these for class but they are good for a pastor to own.)

- I am not providing a supplementary text list but rather providing a plan for building your pastoral library. You should alternate this plan according to other resource needs such as theology, pastoral care, preaching and church history, etc. according to your priorities and needs.
 - In this final year of COS you may already own most of the required texts above. My suggestion to you is to take some of your "book budget" for the course and purchase the following kinds of reference material. They will prove valuable in your future preparation of studies, sermons, etc.
 - I have listed them in relative order of importance. Don't try to get them all now but use this as a plan to gradually add these references throughout your pastoral career. I am including some Old Testament resources in this 'plan' as well.
- 1) Start with a One Volume Bible Dictionary: (Highly recommended to own at some point in your ministry. You should have one from prior COS courses.)
 - a. Most recommended: Powell, Mark Allan. HarperCollins Bible Dictionary - Revised & Updated. HarperOne, 2011.
 - b. Freedman, David Noel, Astrid B. Beck, and Allen C. Myers, eds. Eerdmans Dictionary of the Bible. William B. Eerdmans Publishing Company, 2000.
 - 2) Then add a One Volume Commentary: (Again, highly recommended to own at some point in your ministry. You should have one from prior COS courses.)

- a. Most recommended: Gaventa, Beverly Roberts, and David L. Petersen, eds. The New Interpreter's Bible One-Volume Commentary. Abingdon Press, 2010.
 - b. Mays, James L. HarperCollins Bible Commentary - Revised Edition. Rev Sub. HarperOne, 2000.
 - c. See others listed in the bibliography at the end.
- 3) Add a reference work that helps you understand the New Testament social world. (This is very important since they did not think and interact the way we do!)
- a. Malina, Bruce J. Windows on the World of Jesus: Time Travel to Ancient Judea. Louisville: Westminster John Knox Press, 1993. (Highly recommended and accessible to the lay person. Note however, that I already required it for this course.)
 - b. deSilva, David A. Honor, Patronage, Kinship & Purity: Unlocking New Testament Culture. Downers Grove, Ill.: InterVarsity Press, 2000. (A bit more scholarly with quotations, in English, from ancient Greek and Roman authors but still contains valuable information.)
- 4) Then a Theological Dictionary (looks at the use of various Hebrew and Greek words)
- a. Kittel, G., and G. Friedrich, eds. Theological Dictionary of the New Testament: Abridged in One Volume. Translated by G. W. Bromiley. Grand Rapids, Mich: W.B. Eerdmans, 1985.
 - b. R. Laird Harris, ed. Gleason L. Archer Jr. and Bruce K. Waltke, assoc. ed. Theological Wordbook of the Old Testament. 2 vols. Chicago: Moody Press, 1980.
 - c. For both the above works one can find an article on a particular Greek or Hebrew word by searching that word in blueletterbible.org (see tutorial in course main window) and noting the reference to the word's location in either the TWOT or TDNTA.
- 5) As time goes on add a Multi Volume Bible Dictionary
- a. Most Recommended: Sakenfeld, Katharine Doob. The New Interpreters Dictionary of the Bible. 5 vol. Nashville, TN: Abingdon Press, 2009.
 - b. Freedman, David Noel. The Anchor Bible Dictionary. 6 vol. Bantam Doubleday Dell Publishing Group, Inc., 1992.
- 6) Any time after 1) and 2), as needed add multi volume commentaries which usually treat a single biblical book. Recommended series are:
- a. New Interpreter's Bible
 - each volume contains 3 or 4 biblical books
 - excellent scholarship
 - contains an exegetical (what the passage meant in its original time and place) and an interpretation (what the passage might mean for us today) section
 - b. New International Commentary on the Old Testament and New Testament
 - excellent scholarship
 - more technical and exegetical than interpretive

- c. Interpretation
 - excellent scholarship
 - less technical, more interpretive
- d. Abingdon New Testament Commentaries
- e. Westminster Bible Companion
- f. Note others in the bibliography at the end

III. Course Schedule:

On Campus Weekend: June 19-20

- ☞ The On-Campus Weekend will begin at 2:30 on Friday and end by 2:30pm on Saturday. There will be a dinner break Friday and a lunch break and chapel on Saturday.
- ☞ Bring your textbooks
- ☞ Bring your laptops/tablets/i-whatevers if you have them, we will look at online resources.

Online Environment: 6/22 - 8/1

- ☞ This course Continues with work online. Typical work online includes reading assigned readings, engaging in discussion groups, and writing papers. All online engagement will be complete by 11/1/2013
- ☞ Thanks and feel free to contact me by e-mail (or the course Quickmail system) with any questions.
- ☞ As a rule of thumb one should study for two to four hours outside of class per every one credit hour. Taking an average of three hours per credit hour, one spends 3 hours in class plus 9 hours outside of class for a total of 12 hours of study plus class time per week. For a three credit hour course online of course there is no “in class” time but the rule still applies of about 12 hours per week total of reading, writing papers, posting and responding in discussion forums etc. For reading one can plan on taking an average of 60 minutes per 30 pages (two minutes per page). For writing plan about 60 min. per 1 page.
- ☞ To help you plan reading time, page amounts are listed in parenthesis () and total pages for the week are in brackets [] while estimated time in hours are in braces {}. Don't stress out about this. These are just guidelines to help you plan.

IV. Assignments and Evaluation

A. Explanation of assignments and due dates:

- Assignments are due Midnight at the night of the due date. So if something is due Saturday at midnight then you have all day Saturday until midnight between Saturday night and Sunday AM.
- Electronic submission of written work:
 - Assignments should be submitted in MS Word (*.doc or .docx) format or Rich Text format (.RTF). Most word processor programs (even for the Macc and I-Pad) have the capability to save documents in those formats. This is usually accomplished by choosing the “save as” feature on the program and then selecting the “rich text” or “word” file type.
 - Adobe Acrobat format (*.PDF) is also acceptable. Some programs have the ability to save files in this format. Also there are some third party programs and websites which will convert many file types into this format.
 - All assignments will be returned to you in Adobe Acrobat (*.PDF) format since this is the most efficient way I have found to comment on the contents of written work. So you will need something like the Adobe Acrobat Reader (free download) to read the comments on the graded and returned assignments.
- General information on the papers:
 - Papers will be submitted electronically
 - Use of sources, citation and bibliography:
 - Papers will follow SBL standards for reference citation and bibliography
 - This may be footnoting with a bibliography
 - This may be author/page citation with a bibliography
 - Quotations should be placed in quotation marks and quotations over four lines should be single spaced and indented one half inch from the left margin of the main text. See various examples and style sheets in the course main module.
 - Note that most of your work will be from your own observations of the biblical text and the exegetical tools you will use to understand that text.
 - You won't be using a lot of secondary resources but when you do, those resources should be given their due. See the Academic Honor Policy below.
 - Quoting verbatim or nearly verbatim from a print, electronic, or internet source must be indicated as a quotation and the source cited. Also, when using information or an idea from a particular source it must be cited. Failure to do so will result in one or more consequences listed in the Academic Honor Policy below.
 - Each paper will report the findings of an exegetical method. (1, 2, and 3 below. This is the “what” of your paper.)
 - Each paper will conclude with how the information discovered will affect preaching and teaching. (This is the “so what” of your paper.)
- 1. Historical background/rhetorical exigence (6-7 pages double spaced)
 - a. DUE Friday 7/3 midnight of Friday night

- b. Passage: 1 John (the whole epistle)
 - c. See handout (posted in course main module) for more information.
- 2. Literary context (6-7 pages double spaced)
 - a. DUE Friday 7/17 midnight of Friday night
 - b. Passage: James 2:14-17
 - c. See handout (posted in course main module) for more information.
- 3. Detailed Analysis/Close Reading (6-7 pages double spaced)
 - a. DUE Friday 7/31 midnight of Friday night
 - b. Passage: Romans 3:21-26
 - c. See handout (posted in course main module) for more information.
- 4. Vital Info Sheet (no more than two pages single spaced)
 - a. DUE: every Wednesday by midnight.
 - b. Taken primarily from the readings from Powell, the (approved) study Bible, and from any online and/or posted material that might be assigned.
 - c. Will contain information on the particular book of the bible for that week.
 - d. Will address the following:
 - i. Authorship
 - ii. Date
 - iii. Place (where was it written and where was it received)
 - iv. Audience
 - v. Exigence (why was it written)
 - vi. Summary of the message
 - e. Basically you are answering: WHO (author) said WHAT (content, major themes) to WHOM (audience)? WHEN (date) did they say it? WHERE was it said (place of writing)? WHERE was it heard (audience location)? WHY (exigence) did the author say it?
 - f. The purpose of these “stat. sheets” is so that you will have a ready reference each time you prepare to preach or teach from one of these biblical books.
 - g. With that in mind:
 - i. Don’t worry about form. The sheet can be in outline form with bullet points etc. and organized in a way helpful to you in later ministry, just as long as it contains the info listed above.
 - ii. Citations should be a simple author and page number in parenthesis method, such as (Powell, 200) or (Harrelson, 1953), placed beside a bit of info so later you will be able to find it.
- 5. Participation in the required discussion forum/s for each week:
 - a. This is akin to showing up for class in an online environment.
 - b. Posts should demonstrate thoughtful engagement with the readings and other posted material.
 - c. Posts should follow the guidelines stated for each discussion forum.
 - d. Replies should reflect genuine engagement with the post to which you are replying in relation to the readings and other posted material.
 - e. Posts and replies do not need to be lengthy (actually concise is better) but should reflect familiarity with the readings and other posted material.
 - f. In these forums I am more concerned with thoughtfulness and depth of engagement than with “correctness.” Don’t worry too much about “getting it right,” focus on thinking about and genuinely responding to the assigned material and the posts to which you reply. In the forums I want to know what you are really thinking about the material, not what you think I want to hear.

- g. The minimum for these will usually be one post and one reply.
- h. All initial posts will be due by Thursday midnight so other students will have time to reply.
- i. Replies are due by Saturday midnight.

B. Grading:

Element	% Value
Literary context and synoptic comparison	20
Historical background/rhetorical exigence	20
Detailed analysis/close reading	20
Vital Information Sheets (total of 7 for 3% each)	21
Participation in discussion forums*	19
Total	100

*Note: participation in discussion forums in an online environment is akin to class attendance in a face to face setting. I have assigned a percent value to assess the quality of student interaction which should reflect familiarity with the course content and reading material and thoughtful response to the comments of others as described in 5 above. However simply not participating at all may result in a greater reduction in the student’s final grade than the total percentage assigned to this element and possibly failure of the course.

Grades will be turned in to the COS/United office no later than 30 days after the course ends.

C. ACADEMIC HONOR POLICY

The Course of Study School of Ohio requires that all material submitted by a student in fulfilling academic requirements must be the original work of the student. Violations of academic honor include any action by a student indicating lack of integrity in academic ethics. Violations include, but are not limited to, cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes seeking, acquiring, receiving or passing on information about the content of an examination prior to its authorized release or during its administration. Cheating also includes seeking, using, giving or obtaining unauthorized assistance in any academic assignment or examination. Plagiarism is the act of presenting the published or unpublished words or ideas of another [including online resources] as if it were one’s own work. A writer’s work should be regarded as his or her own property. Any person who knowingly (whether intentionally or unintentionally) uses a writer’s distinctive work without proper acknowledgement is guilty of plagiarism. A student found guilty of a violation of the academic honor policy, after a review of the case, may be subject to one or more of the following actions:

- (1) warning
- (2) probation
- (3) suspension for the remainder of the course
- (4) dismissal from the Course of Study School of Ohio
- (5) failing grade for the course

(6) reduction in grade for the assignment

Regardless of the outcome, a letter will be sent to the student's District Superintendent and Board of Ordained Ministry.
