

United | Tuition and Fees Breakdown 2022-2023

Information on this page is based on the 2022-2023 academic year. Tuition and fees are subject to change every academic year. This information is an estimate of tuition and fees. A student's pace and course availability will have an impact on final cost and program length. For additional assistance with determining cost, please send student aid questions to studentaid@united.edu and student billing questions to studentbilling@united.edu.

Doctor of Ministry

Tuition per semester	Fees per semester	One-time fees
$5,000	Alumni Fee - $15 Digital Library Fee - $50 Technology Fee - $250 Intensive Fee - $450	Orientation Fee - $160 HSR Certification Fee - $50 Candidacy Review - $325 Graduation Fee - $800

Doctoral students will need to consider expenses above the tuition and fees. Students are required to travel to Dayton, Ohio twice per year for the Doctoral intensive; during that week students are responsible for travel, lodging, and breakfast/dinner. In addition, focus groups are required to meet in person once per year at a location determined by the mentor and the group. Dates for the focus group sessions are also determined by the group. It is also recommended that students hire editors to edit their final projects; this expense is the student's responsibility. Graduation fee is charged during the final semester; however students are solely responsible for cap and gowns, and travel cost to Dayton, Ohio.
